We, The Students

Of
B. H. S.

Shall Work

To Keep

This Freedom

Freedom

Out of the awakening of men's minds
And out of the confusion of meanings

Crept the concept of Freedom.

Quietly, reflectively,

It pervaded every desire
and every thought

In every man.

And it became known and accepted
in the

Consciousness of the world.

And men were educated

And knew the truth.

Men had something to live for,

Something greater

Than one small life.

And when freedom was threatened

And repressed,

The men could not forget it

And they would not let it die.

FREEDOM TO GIVE

School Board

Dr. H. W. Shelly, Ray Wilch, James Stratton, Mrs. F. D. Rodabaugh, Superintendent James Ehrman, Clerk Nile Murry, Merlin Benroth.

The Board of Education is the governing body of the school system. With Mrs. F. D. Rodabaugh as President and Dr. Howard Shelly as Vice-President, the board concerns itself with the financial, educational, maintenance, and disciplinary matters of the school. Specific actions taken this year were giving complete support to a plan for a county vocational school, setting teachers' salaries, and discussing the problems of the State standards for high schools. In February, Marvin Diller replaced Nile Murray as School Board Clerk.

Mrs. Melvena Lewis
School Secretary-Treasurer

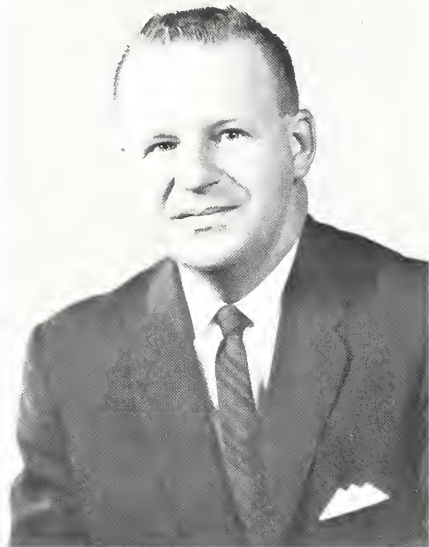

Administrators

Mr. James H. Ehrman
Superintendent

Our superintendent, Mr. James Ehrman has headed the Bluffton schools for the past three years. Mr. Ehrman was a graduate of Bluffton College and received his Masters Degree from Kent State University. Before coming to Bluffton, he was an administrative assistant in the Midview school system. He is also experienced in teaching mathematics.

Heading Bluffton High School's activities this year was our principal Mr. Fred Bremer. Mr. Bremer was born in Defiance, Ohio; attended Wittenberg College; and received his Masters Degree from Ohio State University. Previous assignments before his present position included teaching courses in history, biology, health and physical education at Vaughnsville, where he was also a member of the coaching staff. Mr. Bremer has also been experienced as an executive head in the Vaughnsville school system and as a principal at Harrod High School.

Class rings at last!! last minute rushing for Homecoming, problems of props for the class play, running the concessions stand at the basketball games, contributing valuable players for sports, and one cheerleader ... and last but not least, the grand finale of our year, the Prom. The fun at Ingall's after an especially good game, the comradeship felt after an especially bad one, the pep sessions, the dances, the clubs, the classes, and yes, the report cards! all were part of our Sophomore year at B.H.S.

We are behind our school and our teams all the way and have tried to show it by giving six cheerleaders and countless team members. This we realize is not enough. We're looking forward to even stronger participation in years to come.

Bill Swank carries the "Pirate Ball" against Delphos Jefferson.

"Well, what's the story, ref?"

The mighty Pirates in reserve.

Sixty boys fought for a winning season, and 5-4 it was. Covert, Stemen, Brown, and Moyer all helped to guide them through. The sixteen Seniors did their very best, since it was their very last game, but the forty-four left will do their best to improve upon the past.

Jim Oppermann won the honor of All-State Defensive Tackle. He is the first to receive this title for B.H.S. since Neil Schmidt won it in 1946.

The Pirates ended this year's season with a 5-12 record, but that doesn't show the closeness of the games or the good sportsmanship displayed by the team. The team, consisting of three Seniors and seven Juniors supported talents in shooting and rebounding. With the experience gained this year and the fine record of the reserve team, the Pirates of the hardwood can look forward to a winning season next year.

Bill Swank holds the record for the two mile.

Dick and Darwin lead the pack.

This year's track team has progressed more than any former squad. Each individual has done an excellent job in performance and is striving toward a personal goal of achievement. The 1966 season saw many records broken and new ones established. Bluffton emerged victorious in four out of five meets with the tie going to Bath. The squad should be congratulated for its excellent job and will strive for another victorious season in '67.

Gregg warms up before a game.

Oops! Missed!

Another baseball season has come to a close at B.H.S. The final record of the team is 0-10-1, but this doesn't tell the whole story. The team should return next year with lots of experience. Only four seniors will be leaving. It should also be pointed out that many of these returning lettermen were leading in many of the team statistics. Another interesting factor is that out of the 11 games, only three were lost by more than five runs and four were lost by one run.

Golf

Row One: Harry Greding, George Traucht, Randy Shinn, Jim Sutter. Row Two: Rex Reichenbach, Dave Cochran, Coach Bowden, Harold Waidmann, Mark Amstutz, Don Cochran.

Golf is a relatively new sport at B.H.S., being introduced only last year. Under the coaching of Mr. Bowden the 1966 team closed out their best season to date. Their final record was 4-4. The squad voted Harold Waidmann the most valuable player at the end of the season. Other lettermen were Dick Mast, Rex Reichenbach, Dave Cochran and Don Cochran.

Varsity Cheerleaders

It takes a lot of leadership, a lot of lung power, a lot of long hours, and some talent to be a capable B.H.S. cheerleader. The basketball and football seasons were the highlights of the year. Other activities included a full day of learning new cheers and techniques at the Bowling Green cheerleading clinic, helping with the newly formed Pep Club, planning and working out pep sessions, and making enthusiastic pep signs to cheer the Pirate teams on to victory. Money-making activities were directed toward sending delegates to a summer cheerleading camp. A vote of thanks from each member of the squad goes to their advisor, Miss Raymond, whose able leadership went far beyond duty in concern and encouragement.

This year's Co-Ed Bowling League was made up of 24 members; divided into eight teams. Each team consisting of three bowlers was competing for the trophy which is awarded to the team winning the most games at the end of the tournament. This year's bowlers were also members of the American Junior Bowling Congress. Members of the AJBC are eligible to compete in district bowling tournaments with trophies going to bowlers placing the highest scores. The president for the bowling league was Linda Hughes; vice president, Walt Barber; treasurer, Pat Carter; secretary, Jim Wheeler.

Jim Harnishfager, Treasurer; Janet Martz, Vice-President; Jerri Tschantz, Secretary; John Pannabecker, President.

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service are all qualities possessed by the members of the National Honor Society. The Juniors and Seniors chosen for the organization are to set an example and to stimulate scholarship and leadership in the school body. This year the senior members of the N.H.S. sponsored the school Christmas program, and organized the induction of the new members.

Student Senate

man, Marlene Harvey, Lee Bender, Connie Anderson, Julie Brauen.

The Student Senate is a symbol of democracy within Bluffton High School. It consists of elected representatives from each homeroom with Mr. Bremer as the advisor. The Senate members bring suggestions from their classmates for improvement of the school and its activities. The duties of the Senate include: decorating the school Christmas tree, sponsoring a dance, planning the Thanksgiving assembly, and participating in an exchange program with a neighboring school.

Row One: Linda Hutchinson, Vice President; Mel Casto, President. Row Two: Judy Suter, Secretary; Paula Harrison, Treasurer.

Mixed Chorus

Row One: Sandy Miller, Janice Lugibihl, Ann Triplett, Pam Warner, Linda Hutchinson, Jerri Tschantz, Mary Bixel, Emilie Hamman, Sandra Hanthorn, Carol Steiner, Sherri Albright, Louise Basinger, Deb McKibben, Mary Jane Baker, Judy Wilch. Row Two: Mona Reichenbach, Julie Klingler, Connite Brauen, Martha Augsburgers, Jane Diller, Priscilla Friesen, Sara Templin, Jayne Herr, Shir-lene Sommer, Sara Bixel, Nancy Crawford, Linda Hughes,

What is a Mixed Chorus?

A Mixed Chorus is a feeling of accomplishment after an especially good concert.

A Mixed Chorus is sight-reading a song (Alone!) when you know you can't.

A Mixed Chorus is a feeling of comradeship with the other members when you're being disciplined.

Yes, a Mixed Chorus is all these things and more — some good and some bad. But even the worst is covered by the sense of pride and accomplishment one receives after an especially good and rewarding year such as this one.

Row One: Saun Hanthorn, Secretary; Mary Jane Baker, Robe Chairman; Carol Steiner, Librarian; Greta Purves, Treasurer. Row Two: Bill Swank, Robe Chairman; Linda Hughes, Barb Balmer, Librarians; Jerri Tschantz, Vice-President; George Traucht, President.

COMBINE:

31 lively frosh in assorted tones (sath)
a large collection of songs
1 harassed director
1 pianist
a third period songfest.

Stir well . . . Result?? . . . Chaos!! . . . But even in the midst of this, the frosh have managed to perfect their tones and are taking a big step towards their entrance into mixed chorus next year.

Boys Glee

How low can you go, is what Mr. Gregory wants to know when he auditions boys for Boy's Glee. They hit a high note as far as performance in concerts which have been given. They can be bombastic, swinging, serious, or crazy; but the fact still remains that they are the lowest guys around when it comes to singing.

"Now that I've got discipline . . ."

Girls Glee

"Louder sopranos! Produce altos! Hit it seconds!" With these demands what's a girl to do but sing loudly, produce a womanly tone, and hit the right note. To reach these qualifications takes hard work and only one day a week to reach them. But memorize and sing we did to highlight a very successful year.

He did it! He really got married!

Blaine Bauman, Secretary; Karen Rodabaugh, Treasurer; George Traucht, President; Linda Hutchinson, Vice-President.

This year the Future Teachers of America organization had a great increase in membership. Guest speakers, films, and panel discussions helped to make the meetings interesting for all. In preparation for future vocations, the members grade papers, teach classes, and visit other schools to observe different teaching methods. Also, the F. T. A. chose a Teacher of the Year for the first time this year.

Mrs. Sabiers tells F.T.A. members of the club's coming events.

For all the work of the annual Book Fair, business meetings, program planning committees; there is fun and enjoyment to balance it. The Library Club enjoyed Amil Tellers presentations, the lecturer, John Howard Griffin; and most of all the trip to Dayton to see in Cinerama the movie, "Sound of Music". The work, fun, and fellowship of Library Club amounted to a successful and worthwhile year.

Row One: Linda Hutchinson, Historian; Barb Balmer, President; Priscilla Friesen, Secretary. Row Two: Pam Warner, Treasurer; Phyllis Winkler, Historian; Louise Basinger, Vice President.

Deadlines! Delirium!! Believe it or not, this represents the Cutlass. Hard work, patience, and enjoyment went into each issue of our school newspaper. With Janet Martz as editor, the students were kept well informed of the activities of the school. Also, in its spare time, the Cutlass staff managed to sponsor two dances this year.

Kay Rodabaugh, Editor; Judy Suter, Assistant Editor; Connie Anderson, Assistant Business Manager; Sue Marshall, Business Manager.

Get your Buccaneer now! We need more ads! There's a good picture! Where is that copy sheet? This needs to be typed! Think of something funny for this picture! If I only had my camera! The deadline is Friday! Think! Make the paragraphs short and interesting! With all these phrases and more running through our heads, the Buccaneer staff worked hard to make this the best year book yet.

Judy concentrates on improving her ability to draw a straight line.

We aren't all tomboys and we don't climb trees in our spare time, but we really enjoy the spirit of oneness and liveliness we receive when we vie for a championship in softball, basketball, volleyball, and powder puff football. This year in addition to these moderated sports for the "weaker sex", we sponsored several dances and parties plus the initiation of the incoming frosh members. Our Sadie Hawkins dance was a year's highlight and even our games proved to be worth the time it took to play, watch, or referee . . . No, we aren't all tomboys and we don't climb trees in our spare time . . . but we'll fight anyone who says we do!

PIRATES A'GO-GO sounds off the newly formed BHS Pep Club. Members in their scarlet and white tops enthusiastically support the team and provide colorful atmosphere in their block "B" formation. Their spirit boosts the teams; their activities provide entertaining routines and songs; and their labor includes many long hours spent on making clever signs. We're all proud of our new club, its leaders and its advisor, Miss Raymond. Hats off to a job well done!

The Pep Club cheers the Pirate Five on to victory.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization open to all boys in grades 9-12 who are enrolled in Vocational Agriculture. The purpose of the F. F. A. is to develop rural leadership and co-operation. Its colors are national blue and corn gold. The motto is "learning to do, doing to learn, learning to live, and living to serve". One of the organization's projects this year was the selling of safety emblems. Members also participated in parliamentary procedure contests, livestock and soil-judging, the county fair, the National Convention at Kansas City, and the annual Parent-Son Banquet.

Autumn Leaves

The clear, cool night of October 15, 1965, highlighted by new fallen leaves, golden mums, red roses, necklaces, a winning game, and glowing faces! From the coolness of the night air to the warmth of orange, gold, brown, and green, the students came to see the coronation and to dance among the "Autumn Leaves".

Charley's Aunt

"Does everyone take tea?"

"They're jealous but it was rather nice."

"My dear Kitty, you're a brick!"

This year's Junior Class play, held on November 19 and 20, was originally written as a farce of college life and has become a picture of our Victorian ancestors. Two college boys have invited their young ladies to a tea party to meet the millionairess aunt of one of the boys. When the girls refuse to stay unless properly chaperoned and the aunt fails to appear, they impress one of their college fellows to dress up and impersonate the aunt. Things get worse (or better from the audience view) when two older gentlemen decide to seek the hand and purse of the imitation dowager. Naturally the real aunt arrives, sizes up the situation and reveals herself at the proper moment as Donna Lúcai d'Alvedorez, Charley's Aunt from Brazil, where the nuts come from.

Sadie Hawkins Day

Love is blind!

L'il Abner — Greg Steiner and Daisy Mae — Karen Rodabaugh

Purtin' near all the folks and their kin fetched their books to school on November 12, '65 in their best garments. From bouncy bows to barefoot toes we'uns all celebrated the annual G. A. A. Sadie Hawkin's Day. Came evenin' and all young fellers were caught and drug to the dance by some ever-lovin' female. All kissin' cousins and a few stragglers here 'n thar got hitched up by ol' marryin' Sam accordin' to the laws of Dogpatch. The whole evenin' was perked up by the crownin' of Greg Steiner as L'il Abner and Karen Rodabaugh as Daisy Mae. The whoopin' and hollerin' that night bounced off the rafters for miles around so we reckon' most everybody had a laugh-splittin' time.

Skin Of Our Teeth

When you were drunk?

I have a few notes on the subject.

"Skin of Our Teeth" reveals Thornton Wilder's optimism concerning mankind's ability to survive. The comedy centers around the Antrobus family. Mr. Antrobus represents the inventor, husband, father and mastermind. Sabina is the Antrobus' family maid who adds confusion and comedy to the plot. Through this modern play, Wilder combines the history of the human race into three acts of fun, thought, and assurance that, regardless of the decay of the human race, we, the people of the world will always pull through by the "skin of our teeth".
